“Safety and Liability” with Transportation and your School

Who should attend this conference?
Anyone responsible for ensuring your school is in compliance and covered for any liability issue that may arise.

This seminar will be led by ITI's consultants who have over 60+ years of combined experience with the Indiana State Police. Our experienced consultants can answer your questions about school transportation. Mike Addison, Safety Director and upcoming guest speaker at STAI convention, will be available to share his expertise in school transportation compliance issues.
